

Coollest Trip Ever

The coolest trip ever has been designed for the truly driven business or individual. The Scandinavian rally driving trip provides a completely unique experience. This trip can create and strengthen business relationships like no other, whilst at the same time participating in extreme rally driving hospitality.

The Scandinavian rally experience is truly the coolest ever. It is unlike anything else. Your guest will be taught to slide the car on a frozen lake at speed and with accuracy, pushing the limits of power, traction and their skill to the full. Your guest will be shown the art of a Scandinavian Flick and the secrets of how and why a Rally Driver Left Foot Brakes.

Your guest will come away with more than a smile. They will come away with skills and confidence to control a car in extreme conditions and we believe the training could genuinely save lives.

You will not only have a fantastic time, you will be supporting though slightly, a young British talent in his Scandinavian test programme. You and your guest will have the most unforgettable experience. The feeling of sliding a car, with skill and control on sheet ice!

The cost of the Coollest Business Trip Ever is from £545 per participant, plus flights (Flights can be arranged for less than £80 if booked in advance).
