

The Wheel Deal

The wheel deal sponsorship package has been designed for the successful business man who is driven to succeed.

We are looking for your support in our campaign but are genuinely offering a truly unique chance of a lifetime.

We are offering a sponsorship package which allows you as a sponsor to become a Rally Driver.

You will undergo comprehensive coaching by our Professional Rally Driver the art of rallying. We will train you in all the skills you will require to compete for real, on a real national rally.

What is the Wheel Deal?

You will be provided with comprehensive training to the level required to gain a Motor Sport Association Rally Licence.

We will provide you with everything you need including a fully prepared rally car to contest your first ever national clubman rally.

We will deal with everything involved in competing in a rally. We will provide you with full safety equipment, race suits, complete all the rally entrance paperwork, rally car preparation, event car scrutineering, on event car insurance, professional rally team service crew, professional rally team service vehicles, provide comprehensive step by step instructions and locations of where to be when for the rally and comprehensive spectator information for your family, friends or business colleagues.

The total advertising package is £10,000. You will be supporting a young British talent to succeed on the World Stage, and all the marketing benefits that go along with that. You will also be able to experience something very few people in a lifetime experience, the feeling of becoming a Rally Driver for real!
